Working on plans for the art show at the Highland Fling

Proposed to the City to laminate the stage, working to come up with the amount of money needed for the job, will raise funds for it and find someone to install it. She has already received a $400 donation for the job.

Plans for the amphitheater at the new park: working with Andy Spencer the city engineer, when she had a ballpark figure for cost of construction she will get with Brooklyn Wild the person over city communications to advertise for donations for that project.

Friends of Art: March 7th at 10:00 am, Shelly from VAI will do caricatures of everyone present

Carol Hadlock's Sew 'N Sews group has 50 participants

Doug Courtney: Working with Shauna in letting the Timpanogos Symphonic Orchestra go, There is a written contract that Shauna will get to Doug

Question was asked to Shauna about when the new carpeting would be done in the community building, answered she had no idea

Linda Littlefield: art classes are struggling, some kids don't even want to try to do the art. She started out with 18 students, that is too many, some dropped out and it is better now, but She will limit the classes to 12 students in the future.

We can put our flyers on the city website through the chat box.

She will advertise the Easter Egg Hunt which is March 30 at 10:00 am at the Heritage Park, She will get the flier to Kathy to post on social media
Check out the Arts Council Website at HighlandCityArts.info, It is looking amazing

Ellen Burns: Youth theater in June H.S. Musical 2 Jr., Shauna will call to be sure the dates are reserved, Jordana will pick up scripts from Shauna

Kathy Brooksby: Highland Choral Arts is doing great! We have 80 members and decided to cap the membership at that number. We are performing on May 10th at Timberline Middle School at 7:00 p.m. We have 14 numbers and all of our music is memorized.

Bell Choir needs help, They need more members and financial help. Shauna will help write a grant to get more money to purchase 1 more set of bells
