

Mayor's Message

Captain Rob Newsom, U.S. Navy SEAL, described the difference between those who successfully completed SEAL training and those who didn't, in these terms. "I can say with certainty, those who quit took the first steps toward the bell [candidates can quit anytime by ringing a bell that hangs on the side of their training area] the moment they stopped thinking about the mission and their teammates and started thinking primarily about themselves. So long as they stay focused on the mission and those around them, they can get through anything."

Monday, August 2 through the 7, is Highland Fling Week, a week where we celebrate our community. There are a myriad of activities where you can get to know your Highland 'teammates' and develop bonds that will help us overcome the challenges of life. Please take advantage of all that is available during the week.

One of the uniting characteristics of our community is that in times of need we are there for each other. Our mission, so to speak, is to help each other weather the storms and tempests of life and become better people through our service to each other. For me, that is what makes Highland, Highland.

Speaking of helping each other out, if you are watering your lawn more than 3 times a week please change your controller settings. If you don't know how, ask a neighbor, or call me and I will come over and help.

Ballot Arguments for Potential Recreation, Arts, and Parks Tax

For the past couple of months, the City Council has been considering a RAP Tax. The tax would be a 0.1% sales tax collected in Highland businesses and depending on Council's final decision as to the ballot language, the funds collected could only be spent on recreation facilities and organizations. The sales tax rate means $0.01 would be collected for every $10 spent.

In order for the RAP tax to be implemented, it would have to be approved by voters during the 2021 General Election. City Council is scheduled to make their decision as to whether the RAP tax should go on the ballot at the Council meeting on Tuesday, August 3. If they do decide to put it on the ballot, more information will be forthcoming including a Voter Information Pamphlet.

Any member of the public who wishes to submit arguments in favor or against the RAP Tax for the Voter Information Pamphlet needs to file a request with the City Recorder's office in person at City Hall (Monday – Thursday 7:30 am to 6:00 pm) or by emailing scottle@highlandcity.org. The deadline to request to write an argument is Monday, August 30.

Council Brief

In each month's newsletter, we give a brief overview of some stand-out items from Council meetings. For full agendas, minutes, & audio, visit <http://bit.ly/HC-agendas>.

July 6

The State Legislature recently made changes to State Code regarding regulation of Accessory Dwelling Units (ADU's) such as basement or loft apartments. In order to comply with these changes, Council approved Municipal Code updates such as only requiring one off-street parking stall and no longer requiring double sheet rock and a separate furnace for the ADU. Any homeowner who has an ADU in Highland City is still required to obtain a permit. Applications and more information are available at <https://www.HighlandCity.org/223/Applications-Fees>.

The Council, staff, and a playground contractor discussed potential play structures for the Mountain Ridge Park all abilities playground. Council shared their thoughts and directed staff to obtain feedback from the community at an Open House or similar type event.

July 20

The City Council voted to renew the contract with the Division of Wildlife Resources for the Urban Deer Harvesting program. The program will now continue through 2024.

On June 15, Council had voted to surplus some orphan Open Space properties. To provide clarification on this and related decisions, the Council adopted a Resolution clarifying which orphan Open Space properties are surplussed.

The Council and staff discussed the Parks Maintenance Building that could be built north of the Community Center. A decision was made to move the building to be 30 feet to the west of Alpine Highway. In addition, while the building will be mostly metal, the portion facing Alpine Highway will be designed to look like brick.

Drought Response Tips

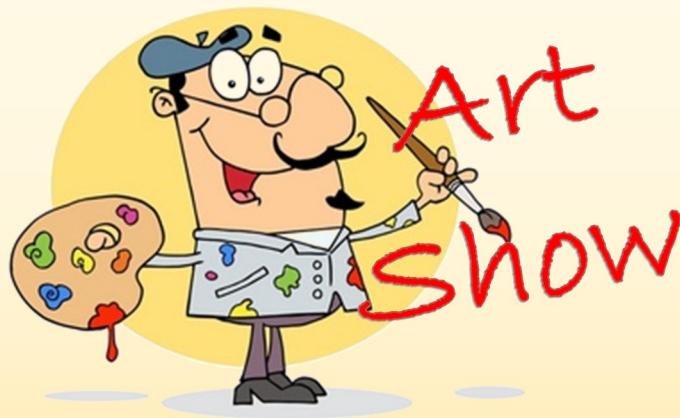

Utah is experiencing one of the worst droughts on record. To do our part, Highland City has asked all residents to water 30% less. Unfortunately, we've only seen about a 5% reduction in use. If we have another mild winter this year, stored water will be critical next year. Please help us and do your part by watering 30% less. In addition, here's a few other drought response tips:

- Raise your mower blade height to 3-4".
- Prioritize watering trees, shrubs, perennials, annuals, then grass.
- Don't water when it's windy.
- Install a smart irrigation controller or low-flow toilet and qualify for a rebate. Details at UtahWaterSavers.com

As a reminder, when you do water, please remember to follow the watering schedule to ensure everyone has enough pressure to water so no drop is wasted:

- Even Addresses: Monday, Wednesday, and Friday
- Odd Addresses: Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday
- No watering on Sunday
- Water from 6:00 pm on the assigned day to 10:00 am the following day

The City is often asked why we don't follow our own guidelines and water parks during the day. Large areas such as parks, schools, churches, etc. require a great deal of pressure to water. If those users areas also watered at night, nearby resident's water pressure could be impacted when they are trying to water. Further, the City's sprinklers are industrial sprinkler heads that mist less than residential heads, thus reducing evaporation. In addition, some spaces are so large and require so many stations, it's impossible to avoid watering during the day.
