

HIGHLAND CITY

Mayor's Message

"Today we give thanks, most of all, for the ideals of honor and faith we inherit from our forefathers—for the decency of purpose, steadfastness of resolve and strength of will, for the courage and the humility, which they possessed and which we must seek to emulate. As we express our gratitude, we must never forget that the highest appreciation is not to utter words but to live by them."—President John F. Kennedy, Thanksgiving Day Proclamation, Nov 1963.

What a wonderful tribute to our heritage and obligation to live up to it. Did you know that a study by doctors Marshall Duke and Robin Fivush, which they began during the summer 2001, showed that the more children know about their family's history, the stronger their sense of control over their lives, the higher their self-esteem and the more successfully they believe their families function.

The doctors developed a measure called the "Do You Know?" scale that asked children to answer 20 questions about their family such as:

- Do you know where your grandparents grew up?
- Do you know where your parents met?
- Do you know of an illness that occurred in your family?

The scale turned out to be the best single predictor of children's emotional health and happiness. Two months after they finished, September 11, 2001 happened. None of the study families were directly impacted by 9/11, but they were subject to national trauma. Again, the children who knew more about their families were more resilient or better able to moderate stress.

President Kennedy was spot on, in pointing out that we should be grateful for the ideals of honor and faith we inherit from our forefathers and that the best way to honor them is to live by them.

This Thanksgiving let's take time to share family stories that illustrate decency, steadfastness, strength, courage, and humility with our children and grandchildren. They will be better able to thrive in a world where fear and uncertainty abound. Our families will be stronger and our community improved as a result. Have a wonderful Thanksgiving. Thanks for all you do to make our community a wonderful place!

Emotional Resilience and Self Reliance Seminar

Emotional and mental health is more important than ever. With rapidly increasing anxiety, depression, self-harm, and other challenges, 21st-century kids are experiencing a crisis. Parents can teach their children the emotional and relationship skills they need to thrive in families, with peers, and later as adults.

Join us for The Emotional Resilience and Self-Reliance Seminar on Thursday, November 11 at 7:00 PM at City Hall. The seminar will teach parents how emotional health is a vital part of social confidence, strong character, achievement, and resilience. Learn how to arm your children with the skills for self-reliance so they develop social confidence, overcome 21st-century challenges, and become successful adults.

Dr. Lynn Scoresby will be leading the seminar. Dr. Scoresby has been a practicing family psychologist for more than 30 years. He is a BYU professor emeritus, author, father, and grandfather.

Council Brief

In each month's newsletter, we give a brief overview of some stand-out items from Council meetings. For full agendas, minutes, & audio, visit <http://bit.ly/HC-agendas>.

October 5

City Council approved a tri-party agreement with DR Horton, Lehi City, and Highland City concerning land on the northwest corner of 11800 North and Highland Boulevard that will be developed as a part of Lehi City. Some highlights of the agreement include: Lehi paying for 50% of the costs of maintaining Highland Boulevard in front of the new development, the cost for an added traffic light at 11800 N and Highland Boulevard to be split between the three parties, the maximum density to be capped at 597 units, and minimum lot sizes of all homes adjacent to Highland City be one-half acre.

October 19

Council approved moving forward with a project to rebuild one of the City's culinary water wells in order to produce better water volume. Staff will now work with the contractor to complete the necessary work on the well.

Council and a representative from Surf Soccer discussed a potential partnership for construction and renting the multi-use fields at the future Mountain Ridge Park. Some Councilmembers along with members of the Parks Committee will continue the discussions to see if a partnership makes sense for the City and Surf soccer.

No Grease in the Drain

Around the holiday season, especially Thanksgiving time, our Public Works Department sees a large amount of grease running through our systems that has been put down the drain. Grease is dangerous for our sewer system as it sticks to other things that have been flushed and can cause a "fatberg" mass which can ultimately lead to sewer backups. Please do yourself and all your neighbors a favor and put your grease in the garbage can instead of down the drain.

Veteran's Day

We want to recognize Ms. Louw's class at Highland Elementary for placing flags at the graves of each Veteran buried at the Highland City Cemetery. Thank you for honoring our Veterans. And thank you to our Veterans for your service to our Country!

Friends of the Library

Jane Austen is rumored to have once said, "If I have not an excellent library, I shall be miserable." Fortunately for us, we have an excellent community library and this month we can give thanks for not only the library, but for the ways our library serves us. Not only do we have access to hundreds of books and materials, but to fun activities as well, such as the new "Grandparents story time" held the second Monday of each month at 10:30 AM. What a special way for grandparents to connect with your grandchildren!

To support these types of activities, the Friends continue to encourage and accept book donations in our donation bin just outside the library doors. We use these books in book sales and they are a major part of our fundraising.

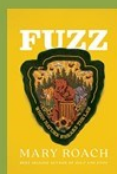

Our on-going used book sale has books of all genres but in November, we are focusing on books dealing with marriage and family. Come see what is available! In December we will offer a selection of Christmas books in addition to other good quality books for gift giving. Keep this in mind and visit the library soon. Get quality books at a great price, and feel good knowing you're giving back and helping keep our community library strong. What a blessing!
