

Mayors Message - Kurt Ostler

Since 1977 when Highland City was formed, one of the areas of focus has been on parks and open space. To help fulfill that vision, Highland City has 27 parks encompassing 176 acres of grass. With it being springtime, I thought it would be nice to highlight our city's parks department and all the work they do for the city.

The city parks department employs 4 full-time and about 30 part-time employees during the summer months to help maintain the parks. The average park employee will maintain 13 acres of grass per week. The city strives to mow all park ground every seven days, but with limited employees in spring and late fall, that sometimes goes to every 10 -14 days. The city has over 1,700 different sprinkler zones, with 10,200 sprinkler heads. During the summer, the city has two full-time employees fixing sprinklers and cleaning out pressurized irrigation filters.

Tree USA has recognized Highland City for the forward city thinking on trees' importance. The city has over 5,000 trees, with 50 being replaced annually.

In November of 2021, Highland residents voted in favor of collecting a Park's tax as part of Highland retail sales tax. In 2023, the Park's tax collected $172,474.69, which the city council authorized to use towards the new Mountain Ridge Park. It is anticipated that in coming years the Parks tax will be going to help towards replacement of one of the 17 park playgrounds.

Thank you to all the city parks employees who help make Highland a beautiful place to live. Employment shout-out: If anyone 16 years or older are looking for a great summer job, the city has park job openings starting at $14.50 per hour up to $16.00 per hour.

Friends of the Library Everyone loves a parade, and the Friends of the Highland City Library are no exception. We're eagerly waiting to add our float in the Cedar Hills Family Festival parade to be held June 8. We'll also participate in the Highland Fling parade on August 3 and the Alpine Days parade on August 10. The theme for the library float is “Adventure Begins at the Library.” You can sign up at the library to walk in any of the parades. Come start your adventure by walking in a parade and then heading back over to the library to find a book to open the door to new experiences.

To further help you in your life adventures, the library personnel help many begin their journeys. Recently the librarians helped a patron write a cover letter and assisted another in finding a program that allows them to type in Chinese.

Highland Historical Society

The Highland Historical Society would like to express a very special thank you to former president Charles Greenland who grew up here and spent many years researching and writing about the history of Highland. Charlie built the Highland Historical Society. His love for our city and the trailblazers in our history is evident on our city website. See the many pages at: <https://bit.ly/HC-history>. Read the chapters of Highland History, about the various families who started or came through Highland in its early years, and more. Charlie continues to contribute his love and expertise to our committee and community for which we are extremely grateful.

The Highland Historical Society seeks volunteers to help us preserve and share our history. We hope to interview those with the earliest memories of Highland. We will be collecting and digitizing written histories and various kinds of records and finding the best ways to share them. If you have spare time to help, would like to join our committee, or have items that should be added to our historical collections, please email Claudia Sudweeks at cesudweeks@yahoo.com. We'd love to have you share your talents - as historians, genealogists, writers, editors, those with various computer and web skills, artists, videographers and media artists, photographers, preservationists, archivists, exhibit designers, educators, those skilled at organizing people or items and information, those who understand grant processes or raising funds, those with non-profit organization experience, and those with other skill sets. More specifics about our volunteer needs will follow.

Thank you to all who have contributed to our city's history - all of you.
