

Once Upon a Time by Aston Limb

Once upon a time, in a beautiful kingdom called Anthropia, there was a King and Queen and they had two kids Wes and Lilly. It was a beautiful time in the kingdom. All the fairytale creatures had come together to create a society. But then, one day, an evil witch cast a spell on the King and Queen, and all the citizens in the kingdom, except for Wes, and Lilly. All the magic from the magical kingdom faded away until everything was dreary and dark. Wes had an idea. "What if we steal the scepter from the witch that would free all the magic of the kingdom and save Mom and Dad and everyone else in the kingdom? I think we should do it!"

And so they went off on a quest to find the witches' lair. As they went down the Forbidden Road they heard some rustling in the bushes and they looked to see what it was. Then all of a sudden, The Gingerbread Man jumped up and recognized the two children immediately. What are you two doing here? The witch lives nearby and if she finds out you escaped the spell she will attack you! Here follow me! Some of us fairy tale creatures are in a secret agency made by your parents when we all united. Our goal is to fight the witch and her minions by using secrecy!

If you push this button the door will open. Some of the members are The Three Little Pigs, Fairy Godmother, Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs, Pinocchio, and finally Rapunzel. We track the witch and her minions when she's trying to do evil bidding. That's how we knew that she set the spell upon the castle. Some of her minions that we've caught this month are Rumpelstiltskin, the Big Bad Wolf, and The Evil Stepmother. I just got some data from headquarters and they say the witch is heading towards the castle. There is where you'll have to fight her and take her scepter.

I'll give you a ride to the castle but that's all I can do. Please be safe and protect our kingdom. I'll have Jeff, one of The Three Little Pigs escort you to your rides. Wes and Lily went into a garage where there were gingerbread motorbikes. "How are these going to work?" Wes said "aren't they just going to crumble." Jeff told them to click the green button and their location, which is the castle. "He said when I say go click the button and put your seat belts on. 3 2 1 go!" "Wow, said Lilly. These are super fast, that makes sense because the Gingerbread man runs fast. Wes, I think I can see our Castle on the horizon. but there's a Dark Mist around it. Do you think that's the witch?" "I guess we'll see, " said Wes. You have arrived at your destination beeped the vehicle. "Well, I guess we are going inside to fight the witch. It's going to be tricky with all of her guards around the castle gates! Wes, remember the garden in the back with the secret entrance into the castle?" " Yes, said Wes, that's how we can get in! Good thinking Lily! We have to hide in the trees but we can go through the Hedge and back to the brown door that will lead us up to the tower. It will be risky but I think it's worth it." " Wes, we made it to the Tower, now we're going to have to jump out of the window onto the bridge a couple of feet under the window, that will lead straight to the throne room where the witch is! Come on, let's go! Wes, there's an amazing view of the entire Kingdom up here, wait a minute, I see The Witch she's sitting on the throne!

Hurry, let's sneak in so she won't see us!" "Well, well, well look what we have here! The prince and the princess here! They'll make a lovely New Edition to my stone statue collection and they can be right by their parents! Guards get them!" "Oh no, the guards are coming towards us! Wait a minute Lily, remember the karate we learned from Mom and Dad, I think this is the time to use it." " You'll never escape me, children. It's time I become ruler of Anthropia!" " Wes, you sneak behind and I'll distract the Witch, get the scepter, and shatter it. Okay!" " Well hello Miss Witch, why do you want to put our kingdom under a spell? I think the people are so nice here!" " Wes, now!" The Witch's scepter broke and everyone under the spell came back, then all of a sudden

The Secret agency broke through the roof and arrested the Witch!" "You're coming back to headquarters where you will be safe and interrogated," said Mr. Gingerbread Man. "Good job kids, you saved our kingdom! I think that you should become our new members!" The kingdom was safe and Anthropia prospered for years to come.

The End
